Dear [Congressperson/Senator's Name],

I am writing to you today with an urgent plea to address the ongoing crisis of preventable medical errors. This issue is not merely a statistic; it is a matter of life and death.

As a grieving father who lost my son, Zander Smith, to medical malpractice, I understand firsthand the devastating impact of these errors. Each year, hundreds of thousands of Americans suffer needlessly due to preventable mistakes. This is a national tragedy that demands immediate action.

I have attached a white paper that outlines the scope of this crisis and proposes several legislative solutions. I urge you to review this document carefully and take swift action on the following:

1. Increase the Statute of Limitations: We must extend the statute of limitations for medical malpractice lawsuits to allow families adequate time to seek justice.
2. Improve Patient Safety Reporting: We need stronger legislation to mandate comprehensive reporting of medical errors and patient outcomes.

I implore you to join me in fighting for a safer healthcare system. The lives of countless Americans depend on it.

Sincerely, [Your Name]

Dear Governor Hochul,

I am writing to you today to urge your immediate support for the Grieving Families Act. This critical legislation will help to ensure that families who have lost loved ones due to medical malpractice can seek justice and hold negligent healthcare providers accountable.

As you know, New York has a significant problem with medical errors. Thousands of families each year are devastated by the loss of loved ones due to preventable mistakes. The Grieving Families Act is a crucial step towards addressing this crisis and protecting the health and well-being of all New Yorkers.

I urge you to sign this bill without delay. By doing so, you will demonstrate your commitment to patient safety and accountability.

Sincerely, [Your Name]

Dear [Recipient Name],

I am writing to you today to share a critical issue that demands your attention: the alarming rate of preventable medical errors. This crisis is claiming the lives of hundreds of thousands of Americans each year.

I have attached a white paper that details the problem and proposes solutions. I urge you to read this document and consider the following:

1. Raise Awareness: Use your platform to educate the public about the dangers of medical errors and the need for reform.
2. Support Patient Advocacy Organizations: Donate to or volunteer with organizations that are working to improve patient safety.
3. Contact Your Elected Officials: Urge your representatives to support legislation that will protect patients and hold healthcare providers accountable.

By working together, we can make a difference and save lives.

Sincerely, [Your Name]
